

Simple Wills for Seniors Clinic

Culp Elliott & Carpenter, P.L.L.C. has recently participated in a Simple Wills for Seniors clinic, along with Bank of America, Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy, Mayer Brown, Mecklenburg County, NC, Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation, and US Bank, providing free legal service for simple wills and estate planning. The clinic was open to Mecklenburg County seniors and veterans, and documents that were prepared included client's Will, Health Care Power of Attorney, Power of Attorney or Living Will. Friday, September 27, 2019 was the day the documents were finalized and signed by the clients.

Culp Elliott & Carpenter attorneys who contributed to this legal service and document preparation include Ben Dean, Andrew Dinwiddie, John Hodnette, Logan Judy, Brie Maris, Bill Mills, Andy Schwarz and Sydney Warren. In addition, Paralegal Angela Mattis and Legal Assistant Balinda Beard were present to assist during the signature of these documents at the Shamrock Senior Center. Carl King, Partner at CE&C, was the sponsor of CE&C's involvement at this event; Mr. King provided Continued Legal Education to other attorney volunteers and was present during the final signature phase on September 27th. This was the 25th pro bono clinic that Mr. King has helped supervise over 19 years.

The initiative was well received by members of the Mecklenburg community, and the clinic served more than 30 clients.
